OUR VISION

*Strengthening Churches ... Empowering Leaders ... Transforming Communities.
With Vision ... By Faith ... Through Action*

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference (SDPC) is to nurture, support and mobilize African American faith, civic, corporate and philanthropic leaders to address critical needs of human and social justice within local, national and global communities. SDPC seeks to strengthen the individual and collective capacity of thought leaders and activists in the academy, church and community through education, advocacy and activism.

WHO WE REPRESENT

The African American Church represents the heartbeat of family, community and civic development in the Black community. As a faith community, the African American Church is diverse, dynamic and growing. The Samuel DeWitt Proctor Conference is part of the continuing legacy of African Americans committed to both the spiritual and social justice aspects of ministry.

ABOUT SAMUEL DEWITT PROCTOR

*"Some pastors have given up on filling the shoes of Amos, Micah, Isaiah or Jeremiah...
God bless those pastors who stand tall and who, in love, tell the truth. They are the [watchpersons] in the tower, the sentinels at the gate who can save us from total pollution."*

The late Reverend Dr. Samuel DeWitt Proctor was Pastor Emeritus of the Abyssinian Baptist Church of New York City and Professor Emeritus at Rutgers University. Dr. Proctor was president of Virginia Union University, Richmond, VA and North Carolina A&T State University. He held administrative positions with the Peace Corps in Nigeria and Washington, D.C. and the National Council of Churches.

Dr. Proctor served on the governing boards of the United Negro College Fund, National Urban League and the Overseer's Visiting Committee for the Divinity School at Harvard University. He was Pastor-In-Residence for the Institute for Child Advocacy at Children's Defense Fund/Haley Farm. He was awarded honorary doctorate degrees from more than 50 colleges and universities. Dr. Proctor was a prolific writer and preacher, authoring We Have This Ministry, How Shall They Hear?, and Sermons from the Black Pulpit, among many others.

*WHOVA: We are using the Whova online event app for conference registration. The Whova platform allows attendees to interact with Exhibitors through both desktop and mobile applications as you upload your information. ### There Is No End To Our Rising: Restoring Our Glory In The Age Of Erasure

Deuteronomy 4:9 (CEB)

THE CALL

We are at a perilous time in which the presumption of democracy in America, and indeed, the world is at stake. For many, the claim to “justice for all” is not a given, and efforts to foster greater equity and support the diversity of America are being thwarted or reversed. We only need to examine Project 2025 to get a sense of the growing divide in this nation. The process of experiential, educational and cultural erasure is of special significance for people of African descent in the United States. Considering all the challenges confronting this nation at this point in time, we thought it most fitting to descend upon Little Rock, Arkansas and be reminded of the transformative history of the area represented by the Central High School Little Rock Nine and the 1919 Elaine Arkansas massacre.

Once and again, our programs and workshops speak to these times to offer the framing and tools for emerging and seasoned faith leaders to navigate the issues of this present moment. We are engaged in the reconstitution of a Nation where justice is truly for all! We are stronger with a unified agenda, especially peer to peer engagement and exchange.

YOUR presence at our 21st Annual Clergy and Lay Leaders Conference matters!
